

2023 Board Application

Thank you for your interest in becoming a Board Member for The UPRISE Collective! UPRISE is a 501c3 member-based non-profit organization that focuses on equity and liberation work, community education, storytelling, and civic engagement. We are dedicated to opening spaces and providing support for people with targeted identities to engage in social uplift within their own communities.

Use this form to tell us a little about yourself, and to share your interest in being a member of our Board, including any important skills, knowledge, or identities that you hold. Some or all of the narrative portion of this application will be shared with our members, who elect our Board Members annually.
